Nepalis in Australia form a forum to support fight for freedom

Nepalis living abroad are concerned about Nepal – the unity among them in USA has been exemplary. And, I know Nepalis in other places too form a community and try to forget that they are living far away from their homeland. Following the example of USA, Nepalis in Australia have formed a forum called Nepalese Forum for Human Rights and People’s Democracy (NEHURIPD), Australia to support the movement for democracy in Nepal recently.

A friend of mine sent me a fax about this. The fax signed by Ramesh Pandey, the co-ordinator of the forum, stated the achievement of 2046 BS movement has been murdered by king’s Feb 1 step. Besides due to long political conflict people are in such a situation where they are unable to enjoy their human rights, thus to support the fight for democracy and human rights, Nepalis in Australia met at Pacific College of Technology and formed the forum.

The forum seeks an active role in disseminating information to the international organizations concerned about democracy and human rights and tries to get support from them. The committee formed included Ramesh Poudel, Chitra Limbu, Chola Kant Bhusal, Yubaraj Bhattarai, Dhurba Subedi, Kamal Tiwari, Hom Nath Pandey, Saroj Sapkota and Mahendra Oli.

I don’t know how much they will be able to work but I really hope they would perform the task that they want to and contribute for the fight for freedom.

Reading this blog reminds me of” A man is known by the company he keeps”. Didn’t get it, so it didn’t matter.
